Georgia Lee Adventure Series, Book 2:

THE GOLDEN KHAN

The deadly race for the secrets of absolute power begins...

1227 CE, MONGOLIA. The greatest conqueror ever lived is entombed with a terrifying weapon, a secret that can obliterate any enemy and bring the mightiest nations to ruin.

NOW, dark forces are gathering to possess what is in his grave to create a new world order...

Just as archaeologist Georgia Lee grapples with the earth-shattering consequences of her last expedition in Taiwan, her life is once again thrown into chaos when she stumbles upon clues to the undiscovered tomb of Genghis Khan.

Her quest swiftly escalates into a desperate race across the vast, infinite landscape of Mongolia, where she confronts not only the enigma of Genghis Khan but also a sinister plot that could alter the course of history.

But to find the tomb, Georgia must first untangle the truth from the lies of what has been told of the Mongol Empire. She must also fight to protect her own secrets from those who would kill to possess them...

The Golden Khan is the sequel to A. H. Wang's best-selling debut novel, The Imperial Alchemist. A seamless blend of fact and fiction that will have you guessing at every turn of the pages, this is an intelligent, daring, lightning-paced thriller that will keep you up all night.

"Couldn't put it down. Best thriller I read this year." – Claire Lohan, author of The Land of Happy Tomorrows
